April 2016

From Pastor Mark's Desk.....

Members and Friends of Mount Si Lutheran Church:

Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! I pray for a blessed Easter season for all of you. As we celebrate this season of new life we are also aware that with new life comes change. I am writing to let you know about a significant change that is on the horizon.

I have accepted a call to be the pastor at St. Luke's Lutheran Church in Bellevue, Washington. After a long process of prayer and discernment I feel led to take on this new challenge and opportunity. So for that my heart is filled with gladness and excitement. But that also comes with a deep sadness as we say goodbye.

A wise bishop once told me that your first call should be the one that warms the rest of your ministry. I was certainly blessed to have that with the good folks at Faith Lutheran Church in Shelton, Washington. Now as I prepare to move again those words have come back to me. The ministry we have done in this place has forever shaped me and formed me into the leader and follower of Christ I am today. I am so grateful for the faith community at Mt. Si Lutheran Church. You are a church of grace, of deep faithfulness, and joy.

Heather, the girls, and I will always celebrate the time we have had together. We will remain residents of North Bend rather than relocating to Bellevue. So you will see us around town and while I will no longer be your pastor we will still be friendly faces in your community. Our relationships will change a bit but the love we have for you in our hearts will not fade.

Thank you. Thank you for all the work you do in this congregation to make a warm a vibrant place for faith. Continue this good work and in this Easter season remember the promise of new life that holds us fast.

In Peace, Pastor Mark Griffith

Pastor Mark's last Sunday will be Apr. 24, 2016. We will have one worship service at 9:00AM with a potluck brunch to follow.

Please see pg. 5 for more information. We invite all to come and share your favorite memories with the Griffith family as we bid them farewell and send them off with love and grace from their Mt Si Church Family.

Submitted by Heidi Dukich, Church Council President

The focus of March was our Lenten journey. I am grateful that we had the opportunity to share meals and worship with our ecumenical partners. Our community is greater for that experience. March ended with a beautiful celebration of Holy Week.

Other updates:

Stewardship and Finance is holding a fund drive for the Building and Ground project for rekeying the church. If you are interested in making a donation to the project, there is a donation box in the narthex or please contact either committee. If you have had a key(s) in the past, and will need a new key to the church, please contact Sheila in the church office. There are Key Request Forms available in the Narthex, Fellowship Hall or Church Office. Please complete a form and return it to the church office as soon as possible.

Jeff King is currently working as treasurer. We continue to simplify our accounting process and will bring in another person to work with Jeff as soon as possible. Council is pleased to report that we have contributed $6,000.00 in benevolence through March.

Committee nights are going well. The Family and Youth committee have chosen July 31st- August 4th for Vacation Bible School. Contact the committee or pastor if interested in helping. Pastor and the Family and Youth search committee are busy strategizing to fill the leadership role for this vacant ministry position.

Lifeline Screening will be at the church on April 29th. The quilting group will have a blessing of the quilts sometime in April.

Peace and Blessings, Heidi Dukich

Mount Si Lutheran Church Prayer Chain

A. For the congregation:

1. Please start your prayer request with the person at the top of either the day, evening, or email list. Callers should call the next person until they reach someone.
2. Prayer requests need to be kept confidential. If the person would like to have their name printed in the Sunday bulletin, please let someone from the prayer chain know, and we can pass that information onto Sheila.
3. PLEASE inform the prayer chain of updates. Those who are praying like to hear how these "little stories" conclude and if we need to continue in prayer!!

B. For the prayer chain participants:

1. Please inform the person ahead of you if you are going to be away.
2. If you leave a prayer request on someone's message machine, please indicate whether or not you have called it on or not. Callers should continue to call a prayer request down until they reach someone.

This new prayer chain is effective as of April 1, 2016. The prayer chain will be updated next April. If you have any questions, please contact Nancy Flanagan, 425 888-1311.

A Publication of the Northwest Washington Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

Surprised by Grace

by the Rev. Kirby Unti, NWWA Bishop

Your Synod Staff has been engaged in a robust conversation about what is the role of the Synod in the midst of all that is changing. It is critical for us to be clearer about who we are because like many of you we are relying on fewer and fewer resources to do the work. This is true both in terms of dollars and people power. Our Staff has graciously agreed to take a 2.5% salary cut to make ends meet. Being clearer about who we are will help us to know to what we can say YES, and to what we will need to say NO.

One of my dear friends in the Renton business community was Pat Newbury. Pat owned four McDonald's restaurants. He put the identity question this way, "You have to know what business you are in?" He then went on to clarify that McDonald's is NOT in the hamburger business. There are lots of people in the hamburger business - but what has made McDonald's successful is that they are in the Three C's Business: Convenience, Consistency, & Cleanliness. You should be able to go into any restaurant in the world and order a Big Mac quickly, that taste like a Big Mac and enjoy it in a clean surrounding. This is pretty true of McDonald's. Howard Schultz has a similar story to tell. Starbucks is more than coffee. It is community. It is a "third place."

Do you know what your identity is as a congregation or ministry site? Do you know what business you are in?

I left for Chicago this year to attend the March Conference of Bishops with this question of identity hanging over me. I found myself thinking about it on the airplane, during break times, and when my mind would wander from the presentation at hand. (This happened frequently!)

It dawned on me: I know what business Lutherans are called to be in. We are called to constantly be discerning where we can surprise the world with God's grace. I believe this is the best gift we have to offer the world.

We Lutherans have no monopoly on it. I think of the wonderful people of Mother Emanuel (Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church in Charleston, SC) who surprised the world with God's grace when they refused to respond with hate to a young Lutheran man who murdered blood of their own blood. I think of the growing attention that Pope Francis is gaining as he continues to surprise the world with God's grace as he responds with compassion rather than condemnation - when he reaches out to touch and kiss the poor and forgotten.

This is who Jesus is for me. The one who over and over again responds in ways no one would predict - turning the cheek, forgiving his enemies, and dying on a cross.

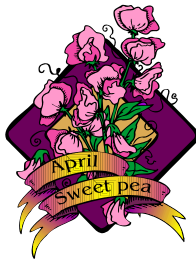

The surprise of the gospel is the very reason I cannot turn my back on it. It just continues to intrigue me and disrupt the normal tendencies of my life.

So what does this mean for the Northwest Washington Synod of the ELCA? What does it mean for us to be in the business of surprising the world with God's grace?

I can promise you this will be preoccupying my heart and mind as I go about the business of serving this office.
